ELBALA 1988

THIS BUILDING IS DEDICATED TO THE CITIZENS OF ELBA, ALABAMA
BOTH PAST AND PRESENT, WHO HAVE LONG HELD PUBLIC EDUCATION IN HIGH ESTEEM AND GIVEN
OF THEIR EFFORTS SO THEIR YOUNG
COULD RECEIVE THE GIFT OF KNOWLEDGE.

ENLIGHTEN THE PEOPLE GENERALLY, AND TYRANNY AND OPPRESSIONS OF BODY AND MIND WILL VANISH LIKE EVIL SPIRITS AT THE DAWN OF DAY.

THOMAS JEFFERSON (1816)

A NEW GENERATION

A NEW GENERATION OF FRIENDS AND TRENDS

As the 1987-1988 year opened, the student body bent a few of the rules attracting attention to their arrival.

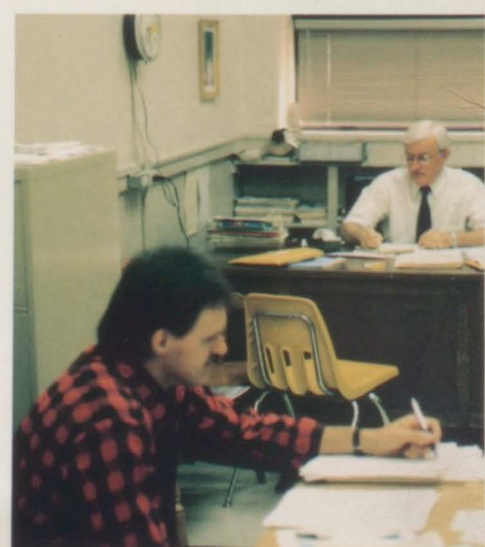

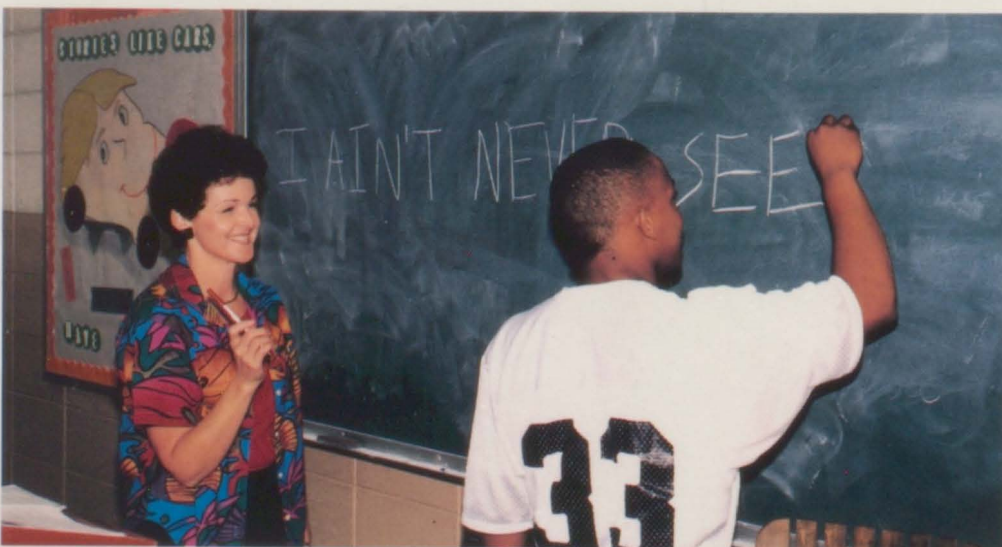

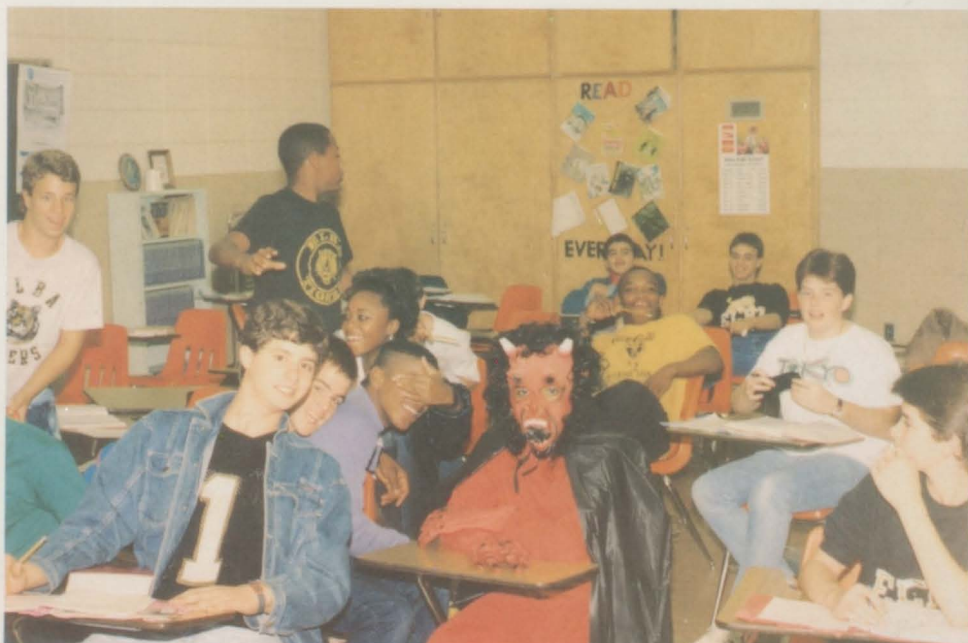

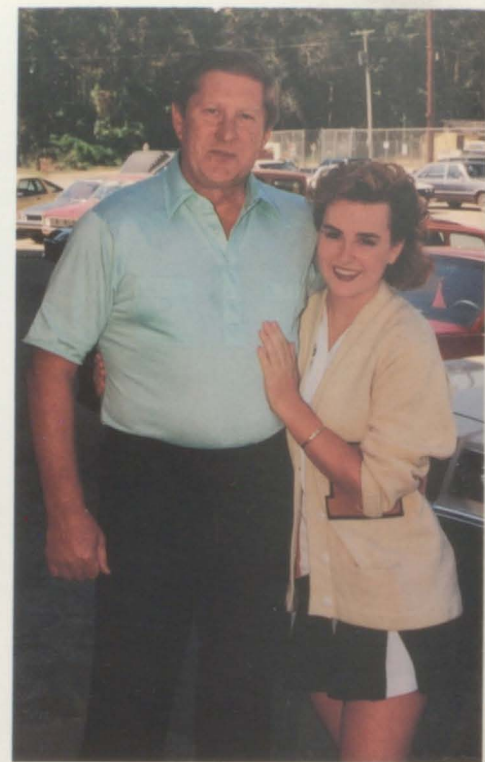

But once
everyone had gotten into the school spirit, the learning
atmosphere became contagious.

Even though students devoted
most of their time
to books, friends
willingly shared a few fleeting
moments with one another.

Students and faculty eagerly anticipated and
welcomed school
events, guests, and
special times
spent together.

Throughout the year, the New Generation
delighted in their friends and trends
of their 1987-1988
school year.

HOMECOMING 1987

On Friday, October 9, 1987, the dream that all girls strive for came true for lovely Miss Beth Henderson, as she was crowned 1987 Homecoming Queen. Beth, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waylon Henderson, was escorted by Mr. Wynn Grimes. She was crowned by senior class president, Mr. Joseph McCollough, and Andrea Carnley, Little Miss Elba. Mr. Chris Wilson presented flowers to the new Queen.

Attending Beth were Misses Xandra Smith, escorted by Richard Coon; Melissa Johnson, escorted by Michael Moseley; Mona Kelley, escorted by Dax Leandro; Kristi Oggs, escorted by Jay Grider; and Kim McBride, escorted by Willie Tillis.

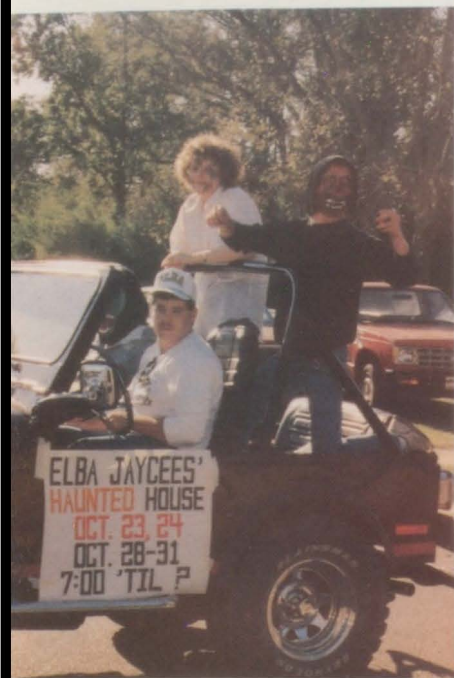

The week of Homecoming '87 was filled with fun and excitement for the students and faculty. The cheerleaders kept the spirit alive by sponsoring "dress-up" days during the week.

Following the Coronation at two o'clock on Friday afternoon, parade entries wound through downtown Elba. The Queen's float, constructed by the seniors, was the highlight of the parade while the sophomores claimed first place in senior high float competition.

The Elba Tigers soundly defeated the Louisville Red Devils 48-6 on the grid-iron, and the dance following the game climaxed a week of everlasting memories.

HOMECOMING '87!

An air of highly-spirited excitement pervaded Miller Memorial Stadium as the mighty Tiger power rushed the field. The Tigers displayed a fighting drive as they walloped the Red Devils of Louisville to an astounding score of 48-6. The home team rolled up 361 yards in the explosive victory.

BAND

The 1987-88 Marching Tiger Band started the new season with a bang. New band director Gary Bradley broke the Old Elba style and painted the Marching Tigers a whole new face. Their abstract art performed on the field stunned audiences and wooed judges. The pride and dedication once again gained superior ratings for the Marching Tigers. They performed at the Little Big Horn Marching Contest in Opp; the Lafayette Marching Classic in Fayetteville, Georgia; and the Old South Marching Band Festival in Milton, Florida. Each band member showed that the special Elba style helped to make this new generation succeed at Elba.

ALISA PARRISH

After much hard work and many practices, Miss Alisa Parrish was chosen as the 1988 Miss Campus Beauty. Alisa is the daughter of Eugene and Shirley Parrish. She is seventeen years old and attends the Elba United Methodist church. Alisa is also a member of Girl Scout Troop #300 and Jr. Music Club.

Alisa was chosen out of thirty-three lovely young ladies. Melonie Moore was chosen as the first alternate; Wendy Moulton as second; Shelia Nelson as third; and Whitney Wise as fourth. The night held much excitement for all of the girls when they entertained the audience with a dance routine performed to the song "Come Go With Me." The other entertainment consisted of dance routines by the dancers from the Jen-Deb school of Dance. Rob Hudson took the audience by storm with his country singing but Melissa Prichard slowed the tempo down when she sang "The Rose." Art Williams gave everyone a big laugh with his puppet show. The night concluded with the crowning of the winner by Mr. Chris Wilson.

Our Stars For The

New Generation

This pictorial chronicle of our experiences in EHS have depicted the events that have made this year special. As we reflect upon fond memories of our school life, we shall always treasure the friends and classmates who helped us to create a NEW GENERATION.
